THE NEWS DURING THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

We desire to have the NEWS largely circulated during the Presidential campaign. The larger our subscription list the more effectually will we be enabled to work, and to this end we trust our friends and patrons will exert themselves somewhat in adding to our present list. The nation will in November declare for GREELY and BROWN, and it is essential that North Carolina should place herself squarely on this liberal movement—for such a consummation will we earnestly labor.

In order to place the DAILY and WEEKLY NEWS within the reach of all, we will send them for a period of four months at the following rates:

DAILY NEWS.

One copy	$ 2 25
Five copies	10 00
Ten copies	17 25

WEEKLY NEWS.

One copy	$ 60
Five copies,	2 50
Ten copies,	4 50
Fifteen copies,	6 00
Twenty copies,	8 00
One hundred copies,	35 00

We trust our friends in the State will assist us in adding names to our list, as by a little exertion on their part we can be enabled to accomplish much good during the present campaign.

LOCAL MATTER.

E. C. WOODSON, City Editor

CHANGE OF APPOINTMENT.—In consequence of the prevalence of small-pox in Nashville, Mr. London, our elector for this District, will not fill his appointment there on the 26th inst., but will speak at Rocky Mount on that day. His other appointments in that county will be filled.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Raleigh bids fair to be quite gay during the fall and winter.

Capt. B. H. Bunn, Esq., of Nash, honored our office with a visit yesterday.

The rain yesterday was most beneficial to both animal and vegetable nature.

Pepper, of the green front on Hargett Street, continues to receive fresh oysters every day.

See the notice in another column of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, located at Wilmington, N. C.

The Hon. W. N. H. Smith, of this city, is absent in the West. He will return in a few days with his family.

Our young friend, W. T. Manning, Esq., of the Messrs. Manning Brothers of the Weldon News, has been sojourning in the city for several days.

Business is rapidly looking up in the city. The most of our merchants have returned from the North, and soon there will be positive life in our midst.

We have added a large number of subscribers from Johnston county to both our daily and weekly lists this week. Advertisers will make a note of this.

The general crop prospects through out this section is considered good, notwithstanding the fear that the cotton crop had been damaged by the worm and other causes.

The proceedings before the Mayor's Court yesterday was uninteresting. The City Treasury was benefitted to the extent of $6, from the result of the use of mean whiskey.

The Committee of Arrangements of the Fire Department of this city were yesterday engaged in effecting arrangements for the entertainment of the Petersburg firemen, who are soon to visit Raleigh.

We had the pleasure of seeing in our office yesterday Mr. James Southgate, agent of the Masonic Temple Association. We are glad to learn that he is progressing well in the raising of funds for the building.

One of our young citizens left the city yesterday morning in a 113 lbs. buggy, under very suspicious circumstances. Rumor has it that the said buggy will soon have another inmate. Good luck to you, neighbor.

There is a movement on foot to have a game of base ball at the Fair Grounds for three days during the approaching Fair—the Star Base Ball Club, of this city, and the U. S. Club, at the soldiers garrison, to bethe combatants.

THE VISIT OF THE PETERSBURG FIREMEN.—The Bollingbrook Fire Company, of Petersburg, Va., will visit Raleigh on Monday, the 7th of October, instead of Monday next, as we recently inadvertantly stated.

DOMESTIC TROUBLE.—"Good morning, Uncle George."

"Good morning Lucy. Is there any news this morning?"

"I should think there was, uncle."

"Why, what has happened now?"

"Oh, the morning paper has got the terriblest lot of pictures of Old John Robinson's Mammoth Menagerie and Circus you ever did see this morning."

"Show it to me, Lucy."

"There it is, Uncle George; you can see for yourself. He is going to come to town with the biggest menagerie and the best circus that ever was seen in the United States."

"Lucy, when did the dressmaker say she would have that new silk dress finished for you?"

"She said it would be finished on the very morning that Old John Robinson comes into town: that will be so nice."

"Lucy, nigh on to fifty years ago John Robinson and I went to school together, got a licking with the same stick, and we always said we would be friends, but time separated us, and since then I've hearn John was a powerful big showman; and I always said if John Robinson came within a hundred miles of my place I was going to see him; so you can tell the dressmaker to hurry up, for you and I will go and see old uncle John, and I will point him out to you. You need not be afraid, for you bet John has got the best, for he would not travel with a show unless it was the finest in the world."

John Robinson will make his grand triumphal entree into Raleigh on the 24th of October.

THE RECENT MURDER OF CAPT. JARRETT, IN MACON COUNTY.—We published a few days since a notice of the murder of Capt. Nimrod Jarrett, of Macon county, and add the following particulars, obtained from a private letter written from Waynesville, under date of the 20th inst. Says the letter:

"I am pained to inform you of the death of Capt. Nimrod Jarrett, which occurred on Sunday morning, the 15th inst., near his home on Nantahala river. He had started to court and proceeded but a mile, when he was murdered and robbed on the public highway by a worthless character who had been lurking in his neighborhood for a few weeks. The man's name is Henderson, who says he is from Tennessee. He is now in jail in Franklin, and although the evidence against him is circumstantial, it is thought to be sufficient to establish his guilt. The remains of Capt. Jarrett were buried at Franklin on Tuesday, with Masonic honors."

HERE AND THERE—

All true courtesy springs from the heart.

Etiquette is an artificial flower, politeness a natural one.

A St. Louis man advertises for "a girl to work in hair." He is evidently a bachelor.

"Ike," said Mrs. Partington, "how do astronomers measure the distance, of the sun?" "Why," replied young hopeful, "they guesses a quarter of the distance, and then multiplies by four."

"Would you take the last cent a person has for a glass of soda water?" asked a Kankakee youth. "Yes," responded the unthinking proprietor; whereupon hopeful pulled out the cent and got the drink.

He who betrays another's secret, because he has quarrelled with him, was never worthy of the sacred name of friend; a breach of kindness on one side will not justify a breach of trust on the other.

Kindness is the music of good will to all men; and on this harp remember that the smallest fingers may play heaven's sweetest tune on earth.

THE NEW LEASE OF THE NORTH CAROLINA ROAD.—We published, a couple of morning's since, a rumor of the North Carolina Road, from Goldsboro to Greensboro, having been leased to the Wilmington and Weldon Road. We learn that this lease has been positively effected. This will doubtless make a material change in the running of the trains over this road, and will probably make closer connections at Goldsboro.

THE WEEKLY NEWS.—The WEEKLY NEWS will be found of peculiar interest during the coming winter, to the people in the country especially. Aside from its general news and commercial departments which will be kept complete, the Legislative proceedings will be reported in a thorough manner. It is a thirty-two column paper, and is furnished at only $2 per annum. Now is the time to subscribe.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE,—

B. F. Coleman, Cincinnati, Contractor on our State Penitentiary;

Maj. Matthew Berry, Washington, D. C.;

Dr. J. J. Mott, Statesville;

REVISAL OF THE LAWS.—We learn from Judge Battle that he has made such progress with his work of digesting the public statute laws of the State, including the "Code of Civil Procedure," that he expects to be ready to report it to the General Assembly at their meeting in November next.

WHAT'S UP?—We noticed yesterday evening standing on the corner of Hargett and Fayetteville streets, John Pool, W. W. Holden, W. F. Henderson, Tom Long, of Salisbury, T. M. Argo, and Jack Williamson, of Franklin county. What's in the wind?

HOP AT THE YARBOROUGH.—The young men will give a social hop at the Yarborough House on Friday evening. A pleasant time may be anticipated.

COLORED GREELEY CLUB AT HENDERSON.—The following letter from Henderson, N. C., under date of the 24th inst., signed by the officers and members of the colored Greeley Club, which has been recently organized at that place, we give place to with pleasure, as we are glad to see this breaking of the ranks in the solid body of blacks which Radicalism has organized:

To the Editors of the Daily News:

SIRS:—We the undesigned, colored voters of the county of Granville, having established in our midst a Greeley and Brown Club, do cordiarily invite the co-operation of all who favor the election of Horace Greeley and B. Gratz Brown, to the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States. It is especially to our colored friends that we appeal, for it was by and through the instrumentality of Mr. Greeley, that we are to-day basking in the sunshine of freedom. No longer are we bowed down by the shackles of slavery—their clanking are no longer heard in this free land of ours—no longer are we subservient to the will of any one unless it is by our full concert and ample remuneration; but one universal shout of freedom prevails throughout the broad confines of this glorious old Republic of ours; and now I ask you, colored countrymen, to come forward and join with us in our praiseworthy enterprise in elevating the old farmer of Chappaqua, to the highest position in the gift of the American people. He has been battling for freedom for forty years, and that being achieved, he is anxious to see the government administered on fair equality and just terms. We now commend to you the perusal of Mr. Greeley's speech delivered at Louisville on the night of the 21st of September, 1872, wherein he asks to be judged without prejudice, without passion, and with a spirit uninfluenced by wrath and vengeance. We now flaunt our banner to the breeze expecting to fight valiently for the Greeley cause until the November election, when we expect to see Mr. Greeley elected to fill the seat now occupied by Gen. U. S. Grant.

W. Haywood Reavis—President.
Allen P. Eaton—Secretary.

Members of the Club—Hilliard Blacknall, John Stark, John W. Smith, David Evans, Dabney Lewis, Tony Overton, James Reavis, Robert Ealem, James Cheatham, Alexander Royster, Jacob Brandom, Willis Harris, J. B. Brandom, Matthew Watson.

JOHNSTON SUPERIOR COURT.—The village of Smithfield was not so closely crowded as on Tuesday, but the Court room, if possible, was more so. The State docket, which numbers 109 cases, was resumed and several cases disposed of.

Ed. Brewer and W. C. Massey, charged with the murder of a man by the name of Holt, were called and failed, and judgment nisi entered against their surety, Billy Smith, the Congressman.

It is thought that the session will continue next week.

We propose to-morrow to tell of "ye local's" experience with the jury that he encountered on the wood pile, on Court green, discussing a case, and the horse swap, a la, Cedar Hill style.

RETURNED.—Supervisor Perry has returned to his headquarters in this city.

For some reasons unknown to us, he has not been transferred from this District as was recently announced.

LIFE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA, ST. LOUIS.—A a meeting of the policy-holders of the Life Association of America held at the company's rooms on the 26th Auguse, for the purpose of considering certain proposed amendments to the charter of the association, it was the sense of the meeting that amendments be added to those proposed, and that the whole be again submitted to the members of the company at a meeting which it was recommended should be held as soon as practicable. Now, therefore, this is to give notice that a meeting of the policy-holders of the Life Association will be held at the principal office of the company in the city of St. Louis on Wednesday, the 25th day of September, inst., at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of voting for or against the proposed amendments to the charter of the association, in accordance with the provisions of section 15 of an act of the general assemby of the state of Missouri, approved March 10, 1869, entitled "an act for the incorporation and regulation of Life Assurance companies."

GOVERNOR CURTIN'S LETTER.

He Declaresm Ephatically in Favor of the Election of Buckalew for Governor of Pennsylvania.

SARATOGA, Sept. 21, 1872.

MY DEAR SIR: Your favor of the 11th inst., informing me of my nomination by the Liberal Republican State Committee a candidate for delegate at large to the Constitutional Convention, and inclosing an address to the people of the State recommending my election, came duly to hand; but extreme illness prevented my reading the letter, or considering the subject, until now. I am still quite feeble, and unable to write without the aid of an amanuensis; but the near approach of the election, and the gravity of the issues, immediately affecting the honor and prosperity of Pennsylvnnia, to be decided in October, compel me to answer when my rest should be unbroken. Nomination made by so meny of the purest and best of the old representative Republicans of the State and presented to the people upon grounds which stand out in brave contrast with the demoralized political management now so sadly prevalent, is an appeal that I cannot refuse to respect. I therefore accept the nomination, and it it shall be ratified by the people, and health permits, I will discharge its duties with fidelity. I had confidently expected, immediately upon my return home, to familiarize myself fully with the details of what I well understood in all general aspects, touching the misrule of our commonwealth under its present political control, and to speak my convictions at the earliest possible moment. While I cannot ever be indifferent in a Presidential contest, I felt that the regeneration of my native State in the October election was of paramount interest to the people in whose happiness and greatness I am enlisted by every consideration of gratitude and patriotism. The bad rule that has wholly compassed the channels of political administrative authority in Pennsylvania is not of recent creation. It was the tireless but impotent power that confronted the action of the Government, State and National, during the dark days of civil war, and steadily struggled to gather advancement and gain from the bitter sorrows of the people. Six years ago it attained crontrol in our State. How it was achieved is remembered in humiliation by all. Why it was sought and won our subsequent history painfully demonstrates. The Republican organization, that has made its name illustrious in maintaining the unity of the State and redeeming a continent to freedom, was seized, in contempt of the will of the people, and its victories perverted to licensed wrong. I need not recite how, under an honored name and flag, it has created widespread, indeed almost universal distrust of authority, and made honest men despair of integrity in legislation, in elections, in conferring legislative honors, and even in the administration of public justice. These terrible and steady growing evils in our political rule have made the people demand the right to resume their sovereignty, to make new safe guards for themselves; but if the proposed Convention is to effect thorough reform it must be aided, not hindered, by the vast power of the Executive and other important State officials. If Mr. Buckalew shall be defeated and a new lease of authority thus conferred upon the despotic control that has long misruled the Commonwealth, it will be marvelous indeed, if a Convention, chosen in the partisan strife of a national contest, can afford any substantial relief or protection to the people. If Pennsylvania is to be restored to purity, the Government in all its departments, as well as the Convention, must harmonize fully and earnestly in the work of regeneration. Mr. Buckalew's confessed integrity and consistent devotion to reform during many years of official service give the best possible guarantees of honest administration and of complete restraints upon corrupt or reckless authority, and his election seems to be demanded by every consideration of individual manhood, and of fidelity to the honor and advancement of the State. If, as is claimed by the desperate leadera of Pennsylvania, to regenerate our State in October will affect the national contest, the cause thus to be endangered must be wanting in most essential attributes of popular confidence. Actuated solely by a sense of duty to a people, whose devotion in times past furnishes the most graceful memories of my life, I shall vote in October for honest government in our commonwealth, and meet the Presidential issue when it comes before the people, in accordance with my long settled convictions. I cannot consent to sacrifice a great contest for constitutional, legislative and administrative reform because a Presidential election is pending. To yield the question would give fresh victories for misrule, and make the effort for just fundamental restraints either measurably or wholly abortive. Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

A. G. CURTIN.

To A. K. McClure, Chairman of the Liberal Republican State Committee of Pennsylvania.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Mr. Greeley at Cleveland—Steamboat Convention.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 25.

During a speech, Greeley denied that he said at Vicksburg a year ago, as has been fully charged, that the time would come when the soldiers that fought with Lee and Johnson would occupy as proud a position in the hearts of the American people as the soldiers who fought with Grant and Sherman. "No such words as these escaped my lips, no such thought as that even entered my head." What he did say, speaking of that, was that he trusted the day would come when the soldierly qualities and military genius of Lee and Stonewall Jackson would be regarded as a part of the heritage of the American people. That they would be spoken of as American soldiers in a cause which, though a bad a cause, illustrated the military capacity, genius and energy of the American people.

At the steamboat convention, large delegations from the seaboards and Western River were present, representing steam vessel property to the amount of $600,000,000.

THE ICEBERGS PASSED.

Elections have been held in some of the Northern States where the Liberal movement was considered the weakest and had made least impression on the public mind.

In cold New England, where the popular heart has not yet responded to the impulse of the nation—where but few accessions had been made to our ranks from the compact organization of the Grantites—where the States are so overwhelmingly Radical that we had little heart to work and no hope to triumph—there, even there, the result has been such that with a proportional gain compared with the vote of 1868 all over the country, Greeley's election in November is assured beyond a doubt.

We did not claim any great things in Vermont or Maine. But the icebergs have now been passed. We look now to the Middle and Western States. The eyes of the nation are turned to Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio.

In these three States we do claim much. We claim that at least two of them will vote with us in October—and we have excellent prospects for carrying all three.

We confidently expect that Pennsylvania will give Buckalew twenty thousand majority. If his majority should be any less, it will be because of fraud and bribery. We do not think even such corrupt means can defeat us, because our friends there are vigilant and are taking every step to guard the ballot box against corruption.

In Indiana and Ohio, our friends are in the best spirits and are counting on large majorities in October.

The pure and able and high-toned Hendricks will almost surely be elected Governor of Indiana by from ten to twenty thousand, notwithstanding the boast of Morton, one of Grant's fuglemen, that he will carry the State for the Radicals if it takes every dollar in the National Treasury. Money cannot stay the tide of opposition in the West that is surging against the present Administration.

Let Pennsylvania, Indiana and Ohio speak in October, and the camp-followers of the nepotic President will cower and tremble at the voice of indignant rebuke that will thunder forth against corruption and despotism.

COMMITTEEMEN who do not attend the meetings of their bodies should resign so that their places may be filled with those who will act.

WE must organize, if we expect to carry the State in November.

SLANDERS REFUTED.

We copy below from the New York Tribune, Mr. Greeley's vindication from charges which have been extensively circulated against him by the Radical press, especially in the South, and which have been repeated from day to day by Radical candidates and canvassers. Mr. James Lyons, of Virginia, who presided over the Blanton Duncan Convention at Louisville, was the first, we believe, to refer to this slander, which was taken up with so much avidity by the Radicals and scattered broad cast over the country. Mr. Lyons repeated the charge in his speech at Louisville, notwithstanding it had been proved to be false and unfounded.

It will be seen from the vindication below, that the Editors deny that any such language ever appeared in the columns of the Tribune at any time. They ask that the files of the paper be searched, and the article re-produced.

If the Tribune contained the language attributed to Mr. Greeley by James Lyons, nothing would be easier than to produce the paper containing it. Mr. Greeley avers positively that he never penned such language. Mr. Lyons asserts that he did—and that it appeared as editorial in Greeley's paper. Mr. Greeley defies him or any one else to show it. Mr. Lyons replies that he cannot do that, but that he is confident Greeley did write it, for he saw it attributed to him in some paper, or pamphlet, or other document. Mr. Greeley rejoins that it is false—that the charge is easily susceptible of proof if it be true—that it is malicious and slanderous, and the author of it is guilty of falsehood and defamation.

Mr. Lyons no doubt thought the accusation true at first, but after it has been shown to be utterly without foundation, and after Mr. Greeley has made a triumphant vindication, we think Mr. Lyons is guilty of a great wrong in refusing to acknowledge his mistake or to retract the charge. If he were a fair-minded and reasonable man, he would do that which simple justice demands at his hands—he would apologize for the error into which he has fallen and to which he has given such a wide circulation. If he does not do that after the slander has been exposed, then he deserves the censure and denunciation of the public press.

We copy from the Tribune of the 23rd:

"The State Journal, of Richmond, Va., makes itself responsible for a dead and decayed falsehood of Mr. James Lyons, who attributed to Mr. Greeley an indecent libel upon the women of the South. When this dirty slander was new we refered to it, denied that anything like it had ever been said or written by Mr. Greeley or the Tribune, and from its general resemblance in style to an indecent pamphlet published some years ago as a burlesque of Republican doctrines, we mistakenly attributed it to that source. Whereupon, Mr. Lyons, to gratify a depraved appetite for that species of filth, bought the pamphlet and read it through, and finding that the sentence he had attributed to Mr. Greeley was not in it, he now screams that Mr. Greeley must have written it, because he cannot find it somewhere else. We think Mr. Lyons a good deal of an—from his performances at Louisville and elsewhere, but we do not believe he thinks Mr. Greeley ever wrote the words he attributes to him. There is more knavery than folly in such persistence. But as well-meaning correspondents have written to us, asking the true state of the case, we repeat once more, to satisfy them, that the indecent language which Mr. Lyons attributes to Mr. Greeley was never used by him or by the Tribune. This Mr. Lyons very well knows, but has not the manhood to admit. Yet if he has one spark of a nature above that of a currish libeler in his composition, he will either retract his charge or prove it. The files of the Tribune can be found in most considerable public libraries, as well as many private ones. At the Astor or Mercantile Library in this city he can consult them to his heart's content. Let him abandon his childish pretense of claiming to have proved that Mr. Greeley must have written the garbage he has collected, because somebody else did not, or let him confess himself the vulgar slanderer he is."

LET THE SWORD BE SHEATHED.

After seven years of cessation from hostilities, it is time the people of the North and the South were at peace.

From the day of the surrender of our armies to the present hour, the people of the Southern States have never contemplated any farther resistance to the Federal Government. When they laid down their arms, they did so in good faith. Like honorable men, they have been true to their obligations and allegiance to the national authorities.

None of the disturbances which have taken place in the South since the close of the war, have had their origin in any hostility to the Government. If Ku Klux outrages have been committed by misguided men, upon any members of a political party on account of their politics, not a particle of proof has ever been adduced to show that the perpetrators intended any war upon the "powers that be." No offense or insult has been shown to have been committed or offered by any man in the South which could be construed into an affront to the Federal Government.

History has never furnished an example of such perfect submission to the issues decided by the sword, as has been exhibited by the people of the South.

Gen. Grant visited North Carolina and the other Southern States in the winter of 1865, to report concerning the condition and sentiments of the people. Upon his return he prepared a detailed statement, which was submitted to President Johnston, in which he declared that the Southern States were loyal to the Union; that the citizens were peaceful and contented, and well-disposed toward the Government.

If Gen. Grant had been guided in his course as President by what he knew to be the true condition of affairs—if he had turned a deaf ear to the politicians, and treated our people with that justice they deserved—if he had practiced magnanity and kindness instead of forcing through Congress iniquitous Ku Klux bills, and dealing with us as enemies, and rebels—if he had acted according to his convictions of duty, instead of obeying the behests of party, there would not be so much necessity for overthrowing his Administration, and rebuking the spirit of hate and tyranny which has characterized his official acts.

His re-election will give us another reign of usurpation and lawlessness. It will keep alive the bitterness and passions of the war. It will keep open wounds that should long since have been healed. It will perpetuate sectional hate and prejudice.

Therefore, the country demands a new Administration. It demands that the feelings of strife and ill-will be put aside. It demands peace and reconciliation. It demands that the sword be sheathed.

MR. AMES' EXPLANATION.

The denial of Hon. Oakes Ames is published by the Liberal papers in connection with his two letters to Col. McComb in 1868, touching the Credit Mob'lier transaction.

Mr. Ames has recently addressed a letter to his constituents in Massachusetts, pronouncing as false and libelous, the charges of fraud and corruption made against him and other members of Congress, in regard to their receiving stock in the Credit Mobilier, for their votes and influence in Congress.

In 1868, after the Ames letters were written, Hon. C. C. Washburne, a Republican Member of Congress from Wisconsin, charged, in a public speech, that the Vice President of the Pacific Railroad used $500,000 to secure the passage of a bill relating to said Road; and it was proved that that sum had been expended for that purpose. Mr. Washburne, in the same speech, showed that $60,000,000 of the people's money had been virtually voted away in the act of 1864, in aid of the Pacific Road.

In one of Oakes Ames' letters written January 25th, 1868, to H. S. McComb, which Ames acknowledges he wrote, occurs the following language in reference to the distribution of the shares of stock in the Credit Mobilier:

"You say I must not put too much in one locality. I have assigned as far as I have given, to four from Massachusetts; one from New Hampshire; one, Delaware; one Tennessee; one half, Ohio; two, Pennsylvania; one, Indiana; one Maine. I am here on the spot, and can better judge where they should go."

McComb states that the names of the members of Congress were put down by him from the lips of Ames, as he read it from the registry book of the Credit Mobilier.

Mr. Ames will have to explain again. His last denial tends only to complicate matters, and to make his position the more embarrassing.

That bribery was used, the public now confidently believe. And Wilson, Boutwell and ten other leading Radical politicians are charged with it. THE PEOPLE WANT LIGHT.

PROSTITUTION OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The New York Tribune published several days since a letter from Dr. W. L. Love, of Macon county, Senator elect to the Legislature, showing that the package of Tribunes sent to Franklin, Macon county, had been broken open, and a large number of the New York Times had been inserted in the package.

In the Tribune of the 21st, we found a large number of letters from subscribers in different sections, complaining that the Post Masters deliver them copies of the Times, to which they are not subscribers, in lieu of the Tribune.

The Tribune also publishes a circular, signed by O. C. Moore, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, of New Hampshire, which has been printed and distributed all over that State, asking each Post Master for the names of the subscribers to the Daily and Weekly Tribune, and proposing to send to each one gratuitously, until the November election, a copy of the New York Times.

In many instances the Post Masters have withheld the Tribune from the subscribers and given them the Times instead. In some instances they have given copies of both papers.

We consider this a high-handed outrage, and one that calls for the severest denunciation, North and South, without regard to party.

It is a bold and unscrupulous attack upon the privileges of the press, which calls for the loudest rebuke.

If such an offence is permitted to go on unchecked, there is no telling to what extent it will be carried, or where it will end.

Is there no law to stop this tampering with the mails?

There must be a remedy somewhere, and the sooner it is applied the better

A GAIN of three votes in each Township will overcome Caldwell's reported majority.

A CONTRAST.

Contrast the speeches now being made by Horace Greeley, on his tour through the West, with those delivered by President Grant, on various public occasions. The one are the utterances of a statesman; the other the awkward and sententious efforts of a novice in political matters. The one are words of wisdom, ability and magnanimity; the other only furnish evidence of Grant's incompetency and unfitness.

The one are spoken by a man of great experience, of enlarged views, of comprehensive intellect, of a kind and generous heart; the other are burlesques upon style, eloquence and common sense.

It is useless to pursue the comparison farther. But the contrast is remarkable and striking.

Modern Duel In China—European Gallantry in the East.

Hong Kong has lately been the scene of a duelistic rencontre—the principals being Leon Checa, Spannish Consul at Hong Kong, and Torre Bueno, Peruvian Consul at Macao. The latter gentman sent the challenge, choosing a rapier as the weapons to be used, but the other refused on the ground that his arm was too weak for sword play, requesting the pistol to be substituted.

The preliminaries of shoot and advance were therefore arranged, and the ground selected being measured off, and seconds in readiness, Bueno won the toss for the first shot at twenty-five paces. At the signal he fired and missed.

Checa then fired at twenty-two paces and likewise missed. Bueno then fired his second shot at nineteen paces and again failed to hit, as did also Checa at sixteen paces. Bueno's third shot at thirteen paces was very close, almost grazing Checa's nose, but it fortunately went clear. Checa then exclaimed: "You see, gentlemen, that he intends to kill me! He is aiming at my head. I would gladly now fire into the air, but I will not trust him at seven paces!" Checa, being now close, aimed, the ball took effect in the shoulder of his opponent and Terre Bueno fell. Checa then left the ground, and Bueno, though wounded, it is thought will recover.

A strong feeling against this manner of settling disputes has arisen in Hong Kong since this rencontre, and it is to be hoped that this meeting will not form a precedent for the future.—Exchange.

Goldsmith Maid, the famous trotting mare, is said to be stolen property, and a law-suit for her recovery is impending. It is said that about five years ago the stables of a great Kentucky stock-raiser were burned down, and a very promising young mare stolen; and that the groom who had charge of her has just seen the celebrated Maid, and is ready to take oath that she is the stolen animal.

So extensively is the adulteration of tea now carried on in China, that Mr. Medhurst, the British Consul at Shanghae, recently wrote that 53,000 pounds of willow leaves were in course of manipulation at one port alone, to be mixed with tea for shipment at the ratio of from ten to twenty per cent.

STATE MATTERS.

WILMINGTON is afflicted with bilious fever.

A DOG in Wilmington is nurtured by a cow.

THE Wilmington Star has entered upon its sixth year.

THE last term of Polk Superior court lasted only one day.

A WHITE woman died in the city hospital, Wilmington, Sunday.

EVERY journeyman printer in Wilmington is said to be for Greeley.

MISS BETTIE COBB died of small-pox at Nashville, Nash county, last Sunday night.

THE steamer Silver Wave is at her landing in Weldon waiting for a rise in the river.

THE ground has been selected for the new Baptist church at Weldon, and the building framed.

HARRY DANCY has been elected President of the colored Greeley and Brown club at Rocky Mount.

THE Roanoke News says the Messrs. Battle will soon commence weaving cloth, at their factory, near Rocky Mount.

A COLORED man, Obien S. Davis, was found dead in his bed in Wilmington on Monday morning.

THE British barque Ansdell, loaded with Railroad iron, has arrived below Wilmington.

THE Wilmington Dramatic Association will soon make arrangements for the coming theatrical season.

THERE will be a pic-nic at the Panecea Springs, Halifax county, on the 12th of October.

THE Roanoke News learns that Mr. Lewis Browning, of Halifax county, is not dead, as was reported.

THE Journal says Sue Brown, colored, has been bound over to the next term of New Hanover Superior court, charged with arson.

THE first course of lectures of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Wilmington, will commece on the first Wednesday in November.

THE Journal says Nicholas Yopp, a young man employed in that office, had his foot badly mashed by one of the presses on Monday.

WILLIAM THOMPSON and John Brown, the two seamen arrested in Wilmington for desertion from the British brig Medusa, were carried back to their quarters, and the brig sailed on Monday.

WE learn from the Star that Rev. Thomas M. Ambler, of Williamsburg, Va., has accepted the Rectorship of St. Paul's (Episcopal) church, Wilmington, and will take charge about the 1st of October.

THE Newbern Journal of Commerce denies the statement made by the Times that it would suspend October 1st. We are glad to know that the report is unfounded and that our cotemporary will continue to be published.

POSTPONED.—The colored Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, composed of the States of North Carolina and Virginia, under charge of Bishop Miles, has been postponed, and will convene in Edenton, this State, in January next.

[For the Daily News.

Col. William H. H. Cowles.

MR. EDITOR:—I learn that Col. Cowles, of Wilkes county, whose name in full appears above, is a candidate for Reading Clerk in the Senate; and I desire to say through your paper, to the members elect to the Senate, who may not know the Colonel, that no person would fill the position with greater acceptability to them, and credit to the State than he. He was a brave and gallant officer of the Confederate army. He is a lawyer by profession, a true Conservative and a high-toned gentleman in every sense of the word, and, if elected, will make a good Clerk.

Asiatic Funeral Rites—A Woman Burning Herself Alive.

The custom in Asia of women burning themselves is of the most remote date. The following description of one of these funeral rites is given by a traveler of undoubted veracity, who was present on the occasion: "A young woman, 20 years of age, having been informed that her spouse died at two hundred leauges' distance, resolved to celebrate his obsequies by burning herself alive. In vain was it represented to her that the news was uncertain. Nothing was capable of making her change the resolution she had taken. We saw her arrive at the place of her suffering with such extraordinary gayety and confidence that I was persuaded she had stupefied her senses with opium. At the head of the retinue which accompanied her was a band of country music consisting of hautboys and kettle drums. After that came several single and married women singing and dancing before the widow, who was dressed in her richest clothes, and whose neck, fingers and legs were laden with a profusion of jewels and bracelets. A troop of men, women and children followed, and closed the procession. The funeral pile was made of apricot-wood mixed with branches of sandal and cinnamon. She beheld it afar off with contempt, and approached it with apparent composure; she took leave of her friends and relations, and distributed her ornaments amongst them. I kept myself near her, on horseback, along with two English merchants. Judging, perhaps, by my countenance that I was sorry for her, to comfort me she threw me one of her bracelets, which luckily I caught hold of. When she was seated on the top of the pile, the attendants set fire to it, and she poured on her head a vessel of fragrant oil, which the flame instantly seized on; thus she was stifled in a moment, without being observed to alter her countenance. Some of the assistants threw in several cruises of oil to increase the fire, and filled the air with frightful cries. When she was entirely consumed, her ashes were thrown into the river." —Exchange.

An Experiment with Paper Car Wheels.

The Springfield Republican says the Connecticut River Railroad Company is about introducing for trial, a set of paper car wheels under the forward truck of one of its engines. These wheels have been known to car builders for some time, but the demand for them has been moderate on account of their cost, notwithstanding the universally admitted fact that they are safe and easy going. The wheels are manufactured by bringing a pressure of 350 tons upon sheets of common straw paper, which forces them into a compact mass, which is then turned perfectly round and the hub forced into a hole in the centre, this requiring a pressure of 25 tons weight. The tire is of steel and has a one-quarter inch bevel upon its inner edge, thus allowing the paper filling to be forced in, 250 tons pressure being required in the process. Two iron plates, one upon each side of the paper, are bolted together, which prevents the possibility of the filling coming out. The tire rests upon the paper only and partakes of its elasticity in consequence. Although these wheels are much more expensive than those in common use, the patentee claims that they are cheap in the end, as they wear longer, injure the trackless and run with less noise than wheels of any other pattern.

POLITICAL DISTURBANCE IN ALABAMA—SEVERAL PERSONS SHOT AND CLUBBED.—Saturday night, at Mobile, Ala., during a Republican meeting, a disturbance occurred by the firing of a pistol on the ground by some one unknown, causing a general stampede.—Some parties say the first shot was fired by a white man, while others say by a colored man. No one was injured in the neighborhood of the speaking, but three persons were seriously injured in all, and two of them were some seven blocks from the scene of action, and had not been near the speaking. Mr. Morris, of the firm of Morris & Brother, was shot while standing in his own dwelling. Mr. Richards, son of C. G. Richards, was the other white man shot. Oliver J. Jemmes was knocked down and clubbed. These are the only persons at present known to have been injured. These persons were shot by colored men stampeding through the city.—Exchange.

ARREST OF TWO WOMEN CHARGED WITH A TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLAR SWINDLE.—A case has just come to light in Philadelphia whereby the city has been swindled out of $20,000 in Philadelphia sixes. The certificate belonged to Mrs. Charlotte S. Parker, and mysteriously disappeared from the Treasurer's office and turned up in a broker's office, where they were presented and sold by a woman calling herself Charlotte S. Parker. The transfer was made through the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, the loan and transfer agent of the city, and the cash obtained. A wealthy lady of Philadelphia, named Mrs. Furey, is said to have vouched for the identity of Mrs. Parker. She and Mrs Parker are in custody.

His Highness, Prince Oscar Frederic, Duke of Ostrogothia, now King of Sweden and Norway, was born on the 21st of January, in the year 1829. He is, consequently, forty-seven years of age. He has already served as Lieutenant General of the army, Chief of Army Brigade and Vice-Admiral of the Royal Navy. On the 6th of June, in the year 1857, he married the Princess Sophia Wilhelmina Marianne Henrietta, daughter of William, Duke of Nassau. His Majesty has four children.

The Chinese have a wonderful force and element of strength in their neglected and unused coal fields, which comprise an area of 400,000 square miles, and in comparison with which 12,000 miles of English coal seem very paltry and insignificant.

The building of a narrow gauge road from Henry Court House, Va., to connect with the Lynchburg and Danville Railroad, at Pittsylvania Court House, is urged by a writer in the Lynchburg News.

The question as to whether Captain Colvocoresses committed suicide or was murdered at Bridgeport is to be decided by the courts. His friends say that they can adduce unquestionable proof to show that he was murdered.

As we learn from the Roanoke News, a marriage took place in Weldon on Tuesday between Joseph T. Weede, of Murfreesboro, N. C., and Miss Celia Jackson, of Ferry Point, Va.

The head of a colored train hand on the Atlantic, Mississippi and Ohio Rail Road was crushed between the "bumpers" of a freight train at Ivor station last Saturday.

SPECIAL FEATURES AND ADVANTAGES.

1st. No restriction on Residence or Travel.

2d. No extra charge on lives of Females.

3d. Policies incontestable after Five Years

4th. The rates of Interest on the Funds of the Company are higher than those on the Funds of Companies located in other States, thus insuring larger Dividends to Policy Holders.

5th. The Directors and Officers of the Company are prominent NORTH CAROLINIANS, who are KNOWN to be men of INTEGRITY and WORTH.

6th. The Company is established on a solid and permanent basis, steps having been taken to increase the Capital Stock to $500,000.

7th. ALL THE FUNDS OF THE COMPANY ARE INVESTED IN THIS STATE AND CIRCULATED AMONG OUR OWN PEOPLE. This fact should commend the Company, above all others, to North Carolinians. It is well known that hundreds of tuousands of Dollars in Life Premenms are annually sent North to enrich Northern Capitalists, thus continually draining our people of immense amounts which should be kept at home. On this ground the friends of this Company confidently appeal to every son of the Old North State, and ask their support for this HOME INSTITUTION, which, while it offers substantially all the advantages of Northern Companies, helps to build up HOME INTERESTS.

"IDLEWILD."

FOR SALE

—AT—

AUCTION!

That Splendid property, on Newbern avenue, in the city of Raleigh, known as

"IDLEWILD,"

(The former residence of the late John Cotton), is offered for sale.

The dwelling is the largest and most perfect private residence in the city, containing fifteen rooms, as follows: One 32x22; five 22x22; seven 20x20; two 15x12, and two large halls; a passage way 48 feet by 10. The house is two stories, with dressed rock basement, upper and lower porches with large columns on each side. All the necessary out-houses, stables, carriage house, &c., &c., are on the premises.

The lot contains about three acres including a large garden with the most magnificent oak grove surrounding the residence to be found in the State; a most beautiful and sloping lawn of ample length and width fronts the dwelling. This property is the most desirable in the city—situated on an elevation of some fifty feet above the Capitol; the healthiest and most attractive and growing part of the city: the grounds, fences, residence and out-buildings are in the most perfect order—not one dollar is required to be spent on same.

The above valuable property will be offered for sale at the Court House door in Raleigh, on Wednesday, October 16th, at 12 o'clock. Terms easy.

N. B.—This property has been highly recommended for a Boys' Civil or Military School; an institution of both kinds sadly needed at this point.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shocco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. M. Heck, on both sides of the Turnpike Road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the tract is in original growth of oak, hickory, &c., one-fifth in second growth pines. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

THE PILGRIM'S REVERY.

LOUISA BROSHNELL.

The waning moon shines pale and still:
The winds in russet branches die;
Day faints upon the darkening hill,
And melts into the days gone by.

The vanished days! now and far,
Yet none so dead they cannot wake
And stir in me, as yon high star
Quivers, peep-visioned, in his lake.

They glimmer down the moon's long beam
They rustle in the russet tree;
They fade in twilight's melting dream,
And slide in starlight down to me.

I feel the hush of brooding wings,
The warmth of tender joys far flown,
And little flights and fluttering,
Of blessings that I almost had,

But O most sweet, and Oh most sad,
Of all these lost delights that thrill!—
The blessings that I almost had,
But life can never more fulfill.

And yet 'tis strange, but these are more
My own, to-night, than all beside,—
Glad stars upon a distant shore
That draw my sails across the tide.

Fade, golden evenings, fade and sink!
Burn, crimson leazes, burn out and fall!
For life is greater than we think,
And death the surest life of all.

UNION SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE.

AGENTS WANTED

In every county in North and South Carolina. Unparralleled inducements offered to Agents, larger commissions being paid than is done by any other Company.

This Machine is particularly adapted to those persons who are unable to purchase one of higher priced Machines, the prices ranging from $25 to $55. The UNION SHUTTLE is the only low-priced Lock-Stitch Machine that has any claim of merit in it. It stands without a rival for its durability, strength and firmness of finish, making, at a low price, a Sewing Machine equal to the highest priced ones, and, in some respects, superior to them all.
